ORDER

Issued: December 3, 2004

Released: December 6, 2004

The parties filed a Joint Motion to Reinstate and Extend Stay of Proceedings on December 2, 2004.

The Joint Motion requests that a previously issued stay,<sup>1</sup> which expired on November 30, 2004, be reinstated. The parties reported in a telephone conference call on November 30, 2004, the status of procedural efforts of Family Broadcasting, Inc. to have this case resolved by the Commission.

The parties now represent that they believe that there is a "reasonable possibility" that the Commission will address a pending Application for Review within the next sixty (60) days, and/or issue a statement on the Minority Distress Policy which could be dispositive of this case.

Finally, the parties acknowledge that this will be the last request for stay.

Ruling

Accordingly, for good cause shown, IT IS ORDERED that the Joint Motion to Reinstate and Extend Stay of Proceedings on December 2, 2004, IS GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all dates, including dates set for filing proposed findings and reply findings, that were set under Order FCC 04M-29, released October 1, 2004, ARE CANCELLED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Stay which expired on November 30, 2004, IS REINSTATED and EXTENDED to and including February 1, 2005.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if the case is not resolved or disposed of by Commission ruling before February 1, 2005, the parties shall file proposed Findings and Conclusions by March 3, 2005, and file Reply Findings and Conclusions by March 18, 2005.
